

Storm Boy Emotions Chart

Suggested Stopping Points for Reflection:	What is the boy feeling at this point in the story?
1. “A chief’s son went fishing alone,”
2. “There was a village there. The houses, the canoes, and even the people were very large.”
3. “You are welcome! You are welcome! Son of a chief from above! they sang.”
4. “The celebration went on in this way for many long hours, the boy and his new friends each learning from the other.”
5. “He missed his mother and father and wondered if he would ever find his way back to them again.”
6. “Closing his eyes, he pictured his father and mother, his house, and the people of his village.”
7. “There he was, lying on the beach in front of his very own village!”
8. “That night the whole village celebrated his return and marveled at the boy as he danced with the staff and told of the large and mysterious people under the strange sky.”	