

Name: _____

Plot Profile - Story Map #1

The diagram consists of a central rectangular box with two horizontal lines for text. Below the first line is the label "Title:" and below the second line is "Author:". Four lines extend from the corners of this central box to four empty circles arranged in a square pattern around it. The circles are intended for students to write key events from the story.